

CHARLES MICHELL - CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE
SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTIONS 4th June 2009
HARTISMERE DIVISION

Charles Writes :-

Dear Elector,

I have been County Councillor for Hartismere for the past 12 years. Having lived in Suffolk nearly all my life I feel well qualified to understand the ways of the county, the opportunities of its gently changing scene and the problems which govern our modern society.

The job of County Councillor has two main elements – the political, decision-making role which takes responsibility for the running of the services we all need and the community role which deals with individual issues and concerns on a daily basis. My experience in local government and in the service of the people I have so long represented make me keen to carry on my work on your behalf.

My 12 years on Suffolk County Council have brought me friendships and fulfilment. It is a great honour to represent this part of Suffolk, and I ask for your support in this election so that I may continue to serve the people of Hartismere.

Charles Michell

Charles' Priorities :-

- To protect the vulnerable in these times of recession
- To look after our countryside and relieve it from litter and the spread of signs along our roads
- To continue to keep Council Tax low
- To sustain the life of small towns and villages, pubs and post office

About Charles

Charles Michell is a former barrister and businessman. He entered local government in 1995 as a District Councillor. His wife, Sara, is a Mid Suffolk District Councillor for the Rickingham & Walsham Ward.

He is presently Chairman of Suffolk County Council, Chairman of the Development Control Committee and an active member of policy working parties.

He takes an active interest in all aspects of country life: he regularly attends the meetings of his parish councils and is himself a member of Eye Town Council.
