

COLIN HART - CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE
SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTIONS 4th June 2009
FRAMLINGHAM DIVISION

About Colin

Colin Hart lives in Rendham and has been a County Councillor since 2005. He is also on Suffolk Coastal District Council where he is portfolio holder for Economic Development.

After gaining a degree in French at Oxford University, he worked as a television current affairs producer and subsequently ran his own business specialising in business communications. He is married with two grown-up daughters and a grand-daughter.

“As your county councillor for the past four years I have been successful in securing funding for local projects such as village halls and road safety improvements” says Colin. “With your support I will go on making sure market towns and rural villages have a strong voice at all levels of local government.”

“The task ahead will be to maintain quality services while keeping any council tax increases as low as possible. With my experience in business and my knowledge of how councils work, I will go making a positive contribution to meeting that challenge.”

Colin Writes :-

Since 2005 as your County Councillor, I have :-

- Defended the countryside against inappropriate development
- Worked with town and parish councils to help achieve their aims
- Helped obtain grants for village halls and other community projects
- Secured funding for a study into a bypass around villages on the A12
- Spoken up for the needs of people living in rural areas and market towns
- Sought out and identified waste and inefficiency in council spending

With your support, I will continue to work for a better quality of life for everyone in this part of Suffolk.

- Keeping council tax as low as possible
- Keeping tight control over county council spending
- Making sure the elderly are properly cared for
- Making sure young people have the education and training they deserve
- Protecting our unique environment

Local government often tries to do too much. We need to do less. And do it better.

Colin Hart